DINING

The second level is dedicated to the restaurant and arguably the most romantic place in the mansion with its ebony-hued timbers, contemporary lighting fixtures that bathe the interiors in warm yellow light, and a view overlooking the lush greenery. The floor plan centers on a spacious dining hall, with 2 private rooms easily created through sliding glass panels if privacy calls.

A rich patina of romance washes over the restaurant, from the lovingly restored ebony-hued timbers of the pitched ceiling and floors to the gorgeous, contemporary lighting features showering down like silver and crystal rain.

We had our wedding at Alkaff mansion and Joan was our assigned coordinator. Joan was amazing throughout the wedding planning journey. She is responsive, responsible and always managed to accommodate to our 101 needs.

Even during the wedding day, everything went smoothly and we are beyond grateful to the team at Alkaff mansion and Joan for making our wedding day such a memorable one. Our guests raved highly about the food served as well as Alkaff mansion as an after party venue.

We are extremely pleased with the level of service provided by Joan and team at Alkaff and would definitely recommend anyone to host their wedding here.

We chose to have our wedding dinner at Alkaff Mansion as we were looking for a cosy venue where we could interact and engage with our guests. It was the perfect venue for that.

As the venue is, after all, a really old building, be prepared for the amenities to be old as well. The lift is susceptible to overheating, and the venue is hard to reach if it rains. So it's best to manage your and your guests' expectations. Otherwise, it's a really unique wedding venue, which offers a really intimate setting.

A special shout-out to Shirley and Joan for being so fantastic right from the start. They were so helpful as well in giving us pointers, really showcasing their experience in the industry. Thank you!!

Had my wedding at UNA at Alkaff Mansion for our wedding and it could not have been more perfect!

1. Wedding Sales team & Coordinator - John was our first point of contact, and was extremely generous and supportive in our requests! Our coordinator, Celest, is responsive, responsible, and so so so kind to a very anxious bride. On the actual day, she gave so many useful tips such as to hold the bouquet on which hand etc. I believe our wedding wouldnt have been perfect if she wasnt there!!!

2. food - our guests raved about the food. This was really important to us and we did not want the standard Singaporean banquet food.

3. Service staff - everyone from the manager, to the waiters were all so kind and sweet! They made my guests and me feel so special.

4. After party - great venue and definitely the highlight for all our guests! Manager and staff were also very friendly and kind.

All in all, UNA @ Alkaff was the perfect wedding venue for us and we are so so so thankful we picked this place. Can't wait to return for our anniversaries!
